The Dixon Public library contains a monument. No, it's not a statue or painting, but a monument nevertheless.

The monument represents 11 years of patience, eye-strain and plain hard work by a bright, cheerful woman, Mrs. J. B. Lennon, 109 E. Chamberlin st.

We're talking about the card index file of the Dixon Evening Telegraph. You can take it from here, it's a truly astounding work.

* * *

Mrs. Lennon began working on the file in the autumn of 1942. Today, the product of her industry occupies 44 library file drawers, estimated to hold 22,000 cards and each refers to a Dixon or Lee county news item printed in the Evening Telegraph since 1851.

The cards are filed under almost 400 subject headings—95 of them dealing with World War II. You can locate any news, society or sports item appearing in the paper for the period indexed to date.

* * *

The file now includes the papers from 1851 to 1902, 1930, and from 1939 to 1946. Mrs. Lennon says the break in continuity came when the library board decided Dixon's centennial year and the war years should have a priority in the work.

The files on World War II are a special example of Mrs. Lennon's painstaking industry. They include notations on all local men who served the nation, along with their advancements, honors and casualties.

* * *

Mrs. Lennon is the heroine of the project. Her husband, a Dixon banker for 40 years, held an intense interest in local history, and the interest proved to be infectious for Mrs. Lennon acquired a taste for it. Mr. Lennon served many years as vice president of the library board and member of the museum committee for Loveland Community House. He died in 1942, and that fall the library board asked Mrs. Lennon if she would begin work on the index. It was only after she had begun that she learned her husband, as well as the library board, long had hoped to accomplish the newspaper index. That information turned the work into a labor of love for Mrs. Lennon, and she's been at it since that time.

The job always has been on a part-time basis. Last year Mrs. Lennon spent 600 hours on the index. She also is curator of the museum in the community house. Naturally, through the years, she has gained a solid education in Dixon history. She says, "There is so much about this that seems so important, and, as time goes on, it becomes more so."

Her greatest reward, Mrs. Lennon says, comes when she sees her file put to use. Many local attorneys use it to establish points of information for their legal cases; ex-servicemen verify dates of their service; junior historians find sources for their projects and high school students and civics class members seek material for term papers. A young couple used the file to verify the issuance of the marriage license, and others have located obituaries for information to settle estates.

* * *

In addition to all the file's other uses, Mrs. Lennon's work is sure to prove invaluable to anyone engaged in historical research on Dixon and Lee county.

Dixon in the years ahead will find many uses for the file, but today, "Take It From Here" offers a salute to this tireless, patient woman, Mrs. J. B. Lennon.

Kidnap Suspects Split on Stories

One Confesses, Other Denies Coast 'Snatch'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two one-time private detectives jailed as abductors in the "Case of the Kidnaped Twin," split up today—police said one confessed and blamed the other, who denied some of the story but essentially wouldn't talk.

The victim, short, round-faced Leonard Moskovitz, 36, was rescued unharmed Tuesday morning after 2½ days of captivity. No ransom was paid despite demands of first $500,000 and then $300,000.

Under California's "Little Lindbergh Law," kidnapping with bodily harm carries a maximum penalty of death and a minimum of life without parole. Kidnaping without harm carries a penalty of life with the possibility of parole.

Jury's Decision

Moskovitz said he was not injured, but Dist. Atty. Thomas Lynch told newsmen the interpretation of bodily harm is up to a jury. Moskovitz was bound and shackled during most of his imprisonment.

Joseph William Lear, 43, of Sacramento, Calif., was caught in a telephone booth making a ransom call to the victim's identical twin, Alfred.

Police said Lear led them to a rented house, where a stocking-foot raiding party broke in, rescued Moskovitz and arrested 57-year-old Harold Jackson of Sacramento as he stood in his shorts.

News Blackout

At police request, all news outlets had voluntarily held back the story until Moskovitz was safe.

Police said Lear, a hearing aid salesman, made a complete confession after he and Jackson had been booked on suspicions of kidnaping.

Chief Homicide Inspector Frank Ahern said Lear related:

Lear had believed he was working with Jackson on a detective case until Moskovitz was bundled into a house rented by Jackson and threatened with death unless Moskovitz family paid $500,000 ransom.

Lear followed Jackson's lead from fear.

Moskovitz himself said Lear kept muttering "'Didn't know it was to be this kind of a job or I wouldn't have gone into it.'"

Questions Story

Ahern questioned Lear's story of being duped into the kidnaping. He said Lear and Jackson bought

DAV Charges New York Group Gave It Black Eye

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national adjutant of the Disabled American Veterans said today a New York state investigating committee set out to give the organization a "black eye" in advance of recent hearings on DAV's fund-raising activities.

Vivian D. Corbly of Cincinnati said in a statement prepared for a House Veterans Committee hearing that the New York State group "villified" the DAV and its service foundation as a "charity racket."

Asked For Hearing

Corbly said DAV asked for the congressional hearing because he contended the New York group did not give it a "decent opportunity to refuse the misinformation which was presented . . . to the public as so-called facts."

The New York legislative committee heard testimony that the DAV used none of 21 million dollars it collected from miniature auto tag sales as payments to needy veterans.

Corbly said the organization did not claim to make such payments. He said testimony given to the New York committee by its own counsel, George Kerner, shows its "utter ignorance of the basic principles of rehabilitation."

"Disabled veterans don't want handouts," he asserted. "They need and want only the benefits to which they are rightfully entitled under the law, which the DAV spends its money to help them obtain."

Deals In Tags

The DAV, headquartered in Cincinnati, manufactures and mails out key ring identification tags bearing automobile owners' auto license numbers. It asks donations in return. The House committee was told that nearly all the people who work in DAV's "idento tag" plant are disabled veterans or their close dependents.

The DAV Tuesday night made public in Cincinnati an audit of its financial operations, showing 1953 receipts from tag contributions totalling $5,007,084. The organization's expenses were listed as $3,005,295, yielding a $2,001,729 net profit.

Corbly said Kerner's statement was reached before we testified. Those conclusions were warped by the committee and by its counsel, to give the DAV a black eye."

New Cold Wave Arriving Here Will Drop Mercury 37 Degrees

Temperature Expected to Fall to -5

Anticipate Snow To Accompany Chill; It's -47 in Montana

A wave of intense cold rolling into the central states today is expected to drop Dixon temperatures about 37 degrees by Thursday morning.

The low is expected to be zero to 5 degrees below. The low early today and the noon reading in Dixon were the same, 32.

The cold wave will be accompanied by winds and snow flurries tonight. Snow is predicted for Thursday.

Western and northern states felt the bite of the cold wave today.

The weather bureau reported that the mercury plunged to 47 below zero in Glasgow, Mont.

37 Below!

Low readings included -37 at Cut Bank, Mont.; -35 at Havre, Mont.; -31 at Dickinson, N. D.; -25 at Bismark, N. D.; -19 at Sheridan, Wyo.; -15 at Rapid City, S. D.; -13 at International Falls, Minn.; and -5 at Chadron, Neb.

The forward edge of the cold front extended this morning from northwestern Illinois southwestward to the Texas Panhandle.

It was moving rapidly southward and eastward.

Temperatures in parts of Kansas and Missouri plummeted more than 30 degrees in six hours.

A chartered cargo plane crashed while attempting to land during a snow storm at the Municipal Air Terminal at Kansas City, Mo. Three men were killed.

Drops 39 Degrees

The temperature at Kansas City dropped from 54 at 3:30 a.m. to 15 above at 9:30 a.m. The snow there was whipped by a wind of 21 m.p.h., with gusts up to 30 m.p.h.

Snow also whirled in sections of the Rocky Mountains and the plains area.

A thick fog crept over New York City. The Idlewild and La Guardia air fields were closed. Several air liners from Europe landed at Boston. Highway and ferry traffic was slowed.

Fog enveloped northern Illinois, northern Indiana and lower Michigan. Chicago's Midway airport was closed during the night, but planes began moving again at 7 a.m. today.

Deny Pieper Damages in Court Here

A verdict of not guilty was returned Tuesday afternoon by a Lee county circuit court jury in a $20,000 damage suit against Donald Noble, 21, Amboy.

The jury of six men and six women deliberated from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. on the case which resulted from a fatal accident Oct. 18, 1952, on Rt. 26, about 2½ miles south of Dixon.

Harold K. Pieper, Mount Morris, administrator of the estate of his son, Donald Pieper, 19, killed in the accident, sought $20,000 damages in his suit against Noble, driver of one of the automobiles in the four-car crash.

Also killed in the accident was Louise Knuth, Amboy, a passenger in the Noble car.

In previous court action, a circuit court jury awarded $5,000 to the girl's father, William C. Knuth, Amboy, in his suit against Pieper.

NEW YORK (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Administration today recommended suspension of Arthur Godfrey's airplane pilot's license.

Treasure That Isn't Buried

ALL OF THE BUSINESS isn't underground at Dixon's Oakwood cemetery. In fact, much of it is converted into bonds like the $138,000 worth pictured here in tablecloth fashion. Members of Oakwood cemetery's three-man board of managers and city officials are shown admiring a treasure that hasn't been buried, but is being put to work. The bonds represent money paid into the cemetery's endowment fund for perpetual care of graves at Oakwood. Only the interest on the bonds is used for that care. The bonds cannot be sold. In Dixon, 100 per cent of the money placed in the endowment fund is converted into bonds, which accrue interest. Included in the above picture taken in the board of directors room in the Dixon National bank are (left to right), seated, J. R. Fitzsimmons, Henry O. Lovett and Warren Badger, members of the board of managers; standing, L. J. Welch, city commissioner of public property; Mayor William Slothower and Treasurer Mark Smith.

Dixon Chamber Protests Dropping Rail Service

NorthWestern Proposes To Cut Clinton Local

The Dixon Chamber of Commerce will protest efforts by the Chicago and NorthWestern railroad to discontinue another passenger train serving small Illinois communities along its western route out of Chicago.

According to Miss Frances Patrick, secretary of the local chamber, the protest will be registered at a hearing scheduled by the Illinois Commerce Commission for Jan. 28 in Chicago.

The written objection will be presented, along with DeKalb's by DeWitt Osgood, secretary of the DeKalb Chamber of Commerce, who will attend the meeting.

Miss Patrick said Dixon and DeKalb are objecting primarily in the interest of smaller communities served by the local train.

Makes Local Stops

The railroad has entered a request with the commerce commission to discontinue the Clinton passenger, which makes local stops from Chicago to the Mississippi river.

While communities the size of Dixon, Sterling, and DeKalb are served by other express trains, towns the size of Franklin Grove, Ashton, and Malta must depend on the Clinton passenger for local service.

Although its discontinuance will not cause a great hardship on Dixon, Miss Patrick said, the local chamber of commerce is interested in the welfare of surrounding smaller communities.

However, people in those towns will not be cut off completely from the outside world in that nine eastbound and nine westbound Greyhound buses serve them daily.

Convenient Schedule

In comparison with modern trains, the Clinton passenger is not in the class of streamliners, but for many communities, it does have a convenient schedule.

As far as Dixon is concerned, its eastbound run leaves here at 6:18 a.m. and arrives in Chicago at 9:15 a.m. It eaves the Northwestern terminal in Chicago at 5:05 p.m. and arrives in Dixon at 7:32 p.m.

Besides the Clinton passenger, Dixon is served by five other Chicago and NorthWestern trains, the City of Portand, the Gold Coast, the Omaha express, the City of Denver, and the Chicago Express.

However, these trains normally do not serve the smaller towns.

On the Westbound run are the City of Portand, leaving Chicago at 5:30 p.m., arriving in Dixon at 6:58 p.m.; the Gold Coast, leaving Chicago at 10:30 p.m., arriving in Dixon at 12:27 a.m.; and the Omaha express, leaving Chicago at 9:51 a.m., arriving in Dixon at noon.

Two Eastbound

On the eastbound run are the City of Denver, leaving Dixon at 6:46 a.m., arriving in Chicago at 8:30 a.m., and the Chicago express, leaving Dixon at 6:40 p.m.,

Chicagoan Named to Head State Police at Sterling

A 44-year-old state police sergeant from Chicago has been appointed to succeed Lt. Delmar Templeton, Dixon, as head of the Sterling state police district.

The appointment of Sgt. Clifford J. Dreyer was announced Tuesday by State Police Chief Phil M. Brown, Springfield. It is expected Dreyer will take over the post on Feb. 1.

Dreyer is currently working in District 4, having served four years with the State police. He has had 18 years experience on the Chicago police force. Dreyer is married and has three children.

Brown said earlier he would be forced to go "out" of the Sterling district to find a replacement for Templeton. He said there were no state patrolmen in the district able to qualify for the promotion.

Templeton announced his resignation Dec. 26, blaming a 26-day suspension he received Oct. 26 as one of the reasons.

Brown said, however, this had "nothing to do with it."

Templeton was the first of two men to be suspended out of the Sterling office. The suspension resulted when he disregarded an order forbidding district patrolman to wear their uniforms at the funeral of a former officer.

The other was Sgt. Joseph Flanagan, suspended on charges of "insubordination." Flanagan is scheduled to come up for a hearing before the state police board this month.

Since Templeton's suspension, Sgt. Raymond Cramer has been temporarily in charge of the Sterling district.

Cheer End Of 3-Year Captivity

Red Radio Protests Turnover; Most to Join Formosa Forces

PANMUNJOM, Thursday (AP)—India completed early today the historic turnover of 21,809 anti-Red prisoners to the U. N. command as North Korean broadcasts declared the action "destroys the armistice."

The last prisoner, a Chinese, was turned over at 12:55 a .m. (9:55 a.m. Wednesday CST) at the end of a surprisingly smooth operation during which the North Korean and Chinese captives often sang and cheered in the rain and mud.

14,227 Chinese

The Indian command announced that 14,227 Chinese and 7,582 North Koreans were turned out of the compounds at Panmunjom, ending more than three years of captivity for many of them.

The Indians said 72 Chinese and 32 North Koreans asked to go home or to a neutral country during the operation, which began Wednesday morning.

The Communists, who had protested the turnover plans bitterly, made no threaening gestures as the prisoners streamed southward.

The U. N. command has promised all of the prisoners their freedom at midnight Friday.

Red China's Peiping radio Wednesday night repeated its warning that "any unilateral action with regard to the prisoners of war is absolutely impermissible." But the warning was mildly worded and officials said the Reds apparently had accepted the Indian command's decision to return unrepatriated prisoners as an accomplished fact.

Reds Refuse

A handful of American, British and South Korean prisoners who chose to stay with the Communists remained in their neutral zone compound. The Indians planned to turn them back to the Communists, but the Reds refused to take them.

In Taipeh, Chinese Nationalists were jubilant after hearing the release had begun. Formosa's biggest celebration in years is planned for the day the POWs begin landing.

Nationalist sources said the prisoners will be held in special villages for re-education and then will be given a choice of civilian life or joining Nationalist military forces.

Considine Garage Theft Loss Is $670

Lee County Sheriff John Stouffer and Chief Deputy Robert Burrs today are investigating the theft of approximately $670 from the Considine garage, Harmon, sometime Tuesday night or early today.

The burglary apparently took place after the garage closed at 10 p.m. Tuesday. A bookkeeper, employed at the garage, discovered the breakin at 8 a.m. today, authorities disclosed.

According to Burrs, entrance was gained by prying a window at the rear of the building. A three-drawer, fire-proof filing cabinet, containing the currency, was forced open.

The garage is owned by State Rep. Hubert Considine, Dixon.

Rural Ogle

List Winners in County Hay and Silage Contest

By GEORGE D. PERISHO
Ogle Farm Adviser

OREGON—Would you believe it? At the Dairy Exhibit Day Jerry Cash of the dairy department, University of Illinois, stated that the average milk production of all of the cows in Illinois 5,720 pounds of milk and 220 pounds of fat, compared to the daughters of the Northern Illinois Breeding Co-op herd sires whose average is 12,263 pounds of milk and 455 pounds of fat.

Some of the other information that we consider of value to dairymen in Ogle County which was discussed at this Exhibit Day by Cash and Leo Fryman, also of the Dairy Department, include the following: pipeline milking, feeds for calves, use of roughage in our feeding program, housing of dairy cows and general care of our dairy herds.

Leo Fryman said that because of the high price of hay many farmers can do well to use more corn when the price is right. It costs us just as much to haul poor hay as good hay and good hay contains a lot more feed. You can pay $5.00 to $10.00 a ton more for high quality alfalfa than for low quality grass for cows. The main thing in good hay is a high percentage of leaves, that is where the protein is. A green color is important also.

Corn is a good substitute for hay. If you have to pay $35 for average alfalfa you will be ahead, using some corn at $1.50 a bushel. Two pounds of corn is equal to about three pounds of hay. You can simply add corn to the daily ration that you are using. A 1200 pound cow will eat about 24 pounds of average hay a day. If you are feeding her 12 pounds of grain you can give her an additional 8 pounds of corn taking the place of 12 pounds of hay. These facts were brought out at the hay and silage contest.

The winners of this contest were:

Alfalfa — Elmer Whitney, Oregon; Milton Burkey, Ashton; Robert Croft, Leaf River; Elton Reigel, Forreston; John Cunningham, Polo.

Clover — Vince Reinema, Chana; Larry Reinema, Chana; Henry Blum, Polo.

Mixed Hay — F. A. Walker, Forreston; George Geary, Polo; Roy Thomas, Mt. Morris.

Corn Silage — Melvin Zipse, Mt. Morris; Henry Blum, Polo; F. A. Walker, Forreston.

Grass Silage — Russell Poole, Polo; John Cunningham, Polo; Carl Holm, Oregon.

Legume Silage — J. B. Stouffer, Milledgeville; Harold Stouffer, Polo; Walter Hummel, Polo.

The Committee responsible for the arrangements of this Dairy Exhibit Day include Lyle Coolidge, Chairman, John Cunningham, Jr., Henry Rittmeyer, Andrew Schier, Jr., and Lawrence Woessner.

Good record keeping is just as important for showing a profit at the end of the year as any other farm job. If you have not already started your 1954 farm account record, why don't you stop by the Farm Bureau office and get a simplified farm account record book. Did you know that every dollar of legitimate expense you fail to enter in your tax report costs you an extra 25 or 30 cents in taxes. This means that if you pay $15.00 for a tractor repair job and then forget to enter it on your tax form you pay about $4.00 extra in taxes. Of course, this applies only if your income exceeds your exemptions and personal deductions. To make every possible profit in 1954 complete good farm records.

On Feb. 18, 25 and March 4 there will be a Farm Management Short Course. The topics to be discussed at this short course include, Lesson 1 — Why complete farm records, the records uses, and long range farm outlook. This lesson will be given by George B. Whitman, extension specialist in Farm Management. Lesson 2 — The economics of land use, choice of crops, importance of high yields, high production rotations, balanced fertilizers, use of nitrogen and cost of production. Lesson 3 — Feeding livestock to the farm business and on what do profits depend, organizing a profitable farm business, rate per hour of labor for different classes of livestock. This lesson will be presented by L. R. Kyle, Extension specialist in Farm Management.

If you would like to attend this farm management short course, due to the nature of it, we will have to have advanced reservations. Therefore, contact your farm adviser as soon as possible so that you will be enrolled. It will be impossible for us to give personal attention to more than 25 or 30 individuals in class. These meetings will be held at the Farm Bureau office beginning at 1:15 p.m. at each of the above dates.

* * *

Another very important training series which will be coming up soon is the tractor repair clinics. These will be held on Feb. 12 at Forreston, Feb. 20, Rochelle; Feb. 26, Stillman Valley; Feb. 27, Polo, and March 6 at Oregon. At these repair clinics you will have an opportunity to do actual repair work on the carburetors, air cleaner, cooling system, of the tractors, also many minor adjustments and trouble adequate supervision at all times. These clinics will begin at 9 a.m. on the dates stated above will adjourn at 3:30 p.m. We will also have to have advanced reservations for this school to enable us to obtain the make of tractor that each one would like to have.

Saturday, Jan. 23, will be the final day for the 4-H Judging Training school which is being held at the Farm Bureau office in Rockford. All 4-H members are invited to participate in this training school. The classes on Saturday will include, Duroc, Chester White and Hampshire hogs. Also beef classes, Angus and Hereford. The Herefords will be furnished by Robert Milligan of Kings, Illinois.

In keeping with the circus tradition, the two performances will include lively appearances of a clown troop.

Tickets will go on sale this week. The circus will be held in the community gymnasium here.

Mt. Morris Rifle Club Nears Anniversary

MT. MORRIS—The Mt. Morris Rifle and Pistol club is nearing its second anniversary. The idea for such an organization here originated when several veterans discussed their experiences in the service.

Interest spread, and in the spring of 1952, a group of men met and organized the club.

Charter members are Ernest Hachmeister, William Meyers, Francis Kaff, Cecil Toler, Curtis Duncan, Harry Horton, Robert Snodgrass, Donald Meyers, Floyd Hachmeister, Joe Franklin, Kermit Miller and Tommy Martin.

Other members of the club are Melvin Kitzmiller, Charles Catlin, Paul Barnhizer, Charles Boebel, Leo Ridenour, William Smith, Malcolm Houghton, Russell Stonebraker, Melvin Beck, Clarence Galor, Clifford Ring, O. H. Boelter and Ray A. Novak.

A junior organization is being planned for children of members of the club.

The rifle range is four miles from Mt. Morris just off Mud Creek road, an ideal spot between two hills. The 400-yard range ends at the far side with a steep hill of several hundred feet of elevation, eliminating the danger of ricocheting bullets.

Edgar Houpt, the owner of the farm, joined the Mt. Morris Rifle and Pistol club and is one of the most active members. His farm machinery was used to build a large revetment to protect target frames, equipment and, most important, the men working on the tarkets during the shooting.

Building of a shelter is in progress at this time. Winter shooting is limited to bench rest firing and heavy calibre practice from standing position, making the shelter fire a relief from cold fingers. The owner member provides fuel for the fires.

An indoor range is being planned if a suitable place can be found.

Oil Well Promoter On Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago accountant testified at a fraud trial he and members of his family invested a total of $160,000 in a Mississippi oil well promoted by George F. Vasen of suburban Oak Park.

Irving Rothbart said he persuaded Vasen to let him invest $6,000 in 1948 after overhearing conversations about the well between Vasen and Paul Platt, owner of a luggage firm whose books Rothbart was accounting.

Vasen is on trial in U.S. District Court on charges of mail fraud and violation of Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. The government alleges Vasen swindled about 300 investors out of almost two million dollars.

Rothbart testified he gave Vasen more money in 1949, and at one time was told the well would be brought in the next day. Later, he said, Rothbart told a meeting of about 100 investors in Chicago that "We've had a little tough luck" and that drilling would have to be continued.

Several months later, Rothbart testified, Vasen again faced investors, told them the SEC was about to investigate, and said:

"We cannot afford an SEC inquiry now. They would force us to register our securities and the whole world would then know what we have."

Rothbart said he later gave Vasen $15,000, which he said Vasen took on a "personal loan basis" although telling him it would go into the oil well.

The trial continues today.

Secy. Weeks Bans Butter Sale to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks has refused to let a Minnesota exporter ship surplus American butter to Russia.

The Commerce Department announced Tuesday night that Weeks had formally denied an export license to Dwayne Andreas of the Honeymead Co., Mankato, Minn. The department gave no further details on Weeks's action.

The secretary told newsmen last Friday he would not approve a license to permit shipment of butter to Russia at a cost "considerably lower" than prices paid by American housewives.

Andreas had mentioned an offer to pay about 50 cents a pound for a large stock of surplus butter held by the government under the price support program. The government paid dairymen about 65 cents a pound. In Washington, househoders pay 73-75 cents a pound.

French Claim Victory in Indochina

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — The French announced today they have retaken the key Mekong river port of Thakhek, evacuated by the French almost a month ago when the Communist-led Vietminh thrust came after tank-led French forces drove to within six miles of the border town in a sweep aimed at recovering central Laotian territory from the rebels.

The Vietminh apparently never occupied Thakhek, although they surrounded the town and established positions north and south of it, posing a threat to neighboring Thailand across the Mekong. The French said reports from Thakhek spoke of "only a few light clashes with no losses to our side."

The Vietminh drove the French from the town and surrounding area in a surprise drive just before Christmas that split Indochina in two. The French did not defend Thakhek at the time but now they are trying to regain the lost territory.

In the Thai tribal country of northwest Indochina, French artillery opened a heavy barrage against Vietminh troops concentrated around Dien Bien Phu. The rebels continued their buildup for an expected assault on that French fortress.

England Hired

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Forrest W. England, a native of Morrisonville, Ill., has been appointed athletic director and head football coach at the University of Toledo.

England, 41, has been coaching since 1946 at Arkansas State — where last season his football team won nine games and tied one. The school held East Texas State College to a 7-7 tie in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., New Year's Day.

England was given a three-year contract calling for $8,500 yearly by Toledo.

Coal Operators Behind in Pay To Miner Fund

LANSFORD, Pa. (AP) — A prominent coal operator says some anthracite companies are in arrears in their payments to United Mine Workers' health and welfare fund by some 1½ million dollars.

The UMW Tuesday announced a 50 per cent cut from $100 to $50 a month in the retirement pension of hard coal miners. The union's reason was a continuing decline in revenue resulting from a steady drop in hard coal production in recent years.

Glenn O Kidd, president of the Lehigh Navigation Coal Co. said operators who are in arrears of pension fund payments are using the money to under-cut the price of coal. He said they are withholding payment in violation of signed agreements with the UMW.

"A ruinously competitive situation in the industry" has resulted, Kidd said. "Legitimate" companies Kidd said, are reaching the point where they cannot continue to survive.

Lehigh Navigation Coal, he said, paid about $1,300,000 into the fund last year in line with contractual obligations, and said it is in the "impossible situation" of having to compete with companies which are not paying.

The UMW's anthracite welfare and pension funds are derived from a 50 cent per ton royalty on anthracite production.

'Slave Day' Plan Raises Polio Fund

VISTA, Calif. (AP)—More than 125 businessmen, public officials and civic leaders were "slaves" here Tuesday in a unique fund raising project for the March of Dimes.

The "Slave Day" was the second phase of the polio fund-raising drive in this northern San Diego County community. Last month the men were auctioned off as "slaves" by Howard D. Cunnemon, newspaper distributor. That project raised more than $1,200. Another $1,000 was collected Tuesday.

Businessmen offered to work in other stores from 1 to 5 p.m. A percentage of their sales went to the polio fund.

"Slaves" who didn't show up were captured by a "posse" and led by "Sheriff" Graehme Smith, who normally is pastor of the Vista Community Church.

They were taken before "Judge" Frank Jones, a hardware store owner, who fined the violators a total of $100. Attorneys donated their time to plead their clients' cases — but needless to say the prosecution won all of them.

Leon Bone, Vista, regular judge in justice court, meanwhile was working behind a counter in a coffee shop.

Other businessmen and civic leaders shined shoes, waited on tables in cafes and collect newspaper subscriptions, with part of the money going to the March of Dimes.

Borrows Idea

ROSLYN HEIGHTS, N.Y. (AP) — John Newton, 49, an electrical engineer, borrowed an idea from a prison death house Tuesday to kill himself.

In the basement of his house he wired a transformer to two metal plates to step up the house voltage, police said, and then fastened the plates to his body in front and back in the same manner as electrodes of an electric chair are fastened to a condemned person. Then he threw the switch.

Rural Ogle

List Winners in County Hay and Silage Contest

By GEORGE D. PERISHO
Ogle Farm Adviser

OREGON—Would you believe it? At the Dairy Exhibit Day Jerry Cash of the dairy department, University of Illinois, stated that the average milk production of all of the cows in Illinois 5,720 pounds of milk and 220 pounds of fat, compared to the daughters of the Northern Illinois Breeding Co-op herd sires whose average is 12,263 pounds of milk and 455 pounds of fat.

Some of the other information that we consider of value to dairymen in Ogle County which was discussed at this Exhibit Day by Cash and Leo Fryman, also of the Dairy Department, include the following: pipeline milking, feeds for calves, use of roughage in our feeding program, housing of dairy cows and general care of our dairy herds.

Leo Fryman said that because of the high price of hay many farmers can do well to use more corn when the price is right. It costs us just as much to haul poor hay as good hay and good hay contains a lot more feed. You can pay $5.00 to $10.00 a ton more for high quality alfalfa than for low quality grass for cows. The main thing in good hay is a high percentage of leaves, that is where the protein is. A green color is important also.

Corn is a good substitute for hay. If you have to pay $35 for average alfalfa you will be ahead, using some corn at $1.50 a bushel. Two pounds of corn is equal to about three pounds of hay. You can simply add corn to the daily ration that you are using. A 1200 pound cow will eat about 24 pounds of average hay a day. If you are feeding her 12 pounds of grain you can give her an additional 8 pounds of corn taking the place of 12 pounds of hay. These facts were brought out at the hay and silage contest.

The winners of this contest were:

Alfalfa — Elmer Whitney, Oregon; Milton Burkey, Ashton; Robert Croft, Leaf River; Elton Reigel, Forreston; John Cunningham, Polo.

Clover — Vince Reinema, Chana; Larry Reinema, Chana; Henry Blum, Polo.

Mixed Hay — F. A. Walker, Forreston; George Geary, Polo; Roy Thomas, Mt. Morris.

Corn Silage — Melvin Zipse, Mt. Morris; Henry Blum, Polo; F. A. Walker, Forreston.

Grass Silage — Russell Poole, Polo; John Cunningham, Polo; Carl Holm, Oregon.

Legume Silage — J. B. Stouffer, Milledgeville; Harold Stouffer, Polo; Walter Hummel, Polo.

The Committee responsible for the arrangements of this Dairy Exhibit Day include Lyle Coolidge, Chairman, John Cunningham, Jr., Henry Rittmeyer, Andrew Schier, Jr., and Lawrence Woessner.

Good record keeping is just as important for showing a profit at the end of the year as any other farm job. If you have not already started your 1954 farm account record, why don't you stop by the Farm Bureau office and get a simplified farm account record book. Did you know that every dollar of legitimate expense you fail to enter in your tax report costs you an extra 25 or 30 cents in taxes. This means that if you pay $15.00 for a tractor repair job and then forget to enter it on your tax form you pay about $4.00 extra in taxes. Of course, this applies only if your income exceeds your exemptions and personal deductions. To make every possible profit in 1954 complete good farm records.

On Feb. 18, 25 and March 4 there will be a Farm Management Short Course. The topics to be discussed at this short course include, Lesson 1 — Why complete farm records, the records uses, and long range farm outlook. This lesson will be given by George B. Whitman, extension specialist in Farm Management. Lesson 2 — The economics of land use, choice of crops, importance of high yields, high production rotations, balanced fertilizers, use of nitrogen and cost of production. Lesson 3 — Feeding livestock to the farm business and on what do profits depend, organizing a profitable farm business, rate per hour of labor for different classes of livestock. This lesson will be presented by L. R. Kyle, Extension specialist in Farm Management.

If you would like to attend this farm management short course, due to the nature of it, we will have to have advanced reservations. Therefore, contact your farm adviser as soon as possible so that you will be enrolled. It will be impossible for us to give personal attention to more than 25 or 30 individuals in class. These meetings will be held at the Farm Bureau office beginning at 1:15 p.m. at each of the above dates.

* * *

Another very important training series which will be coming up soon is the tractor repair clinics. These will be held on Feb. 12 at Forreston, Feb. 20, Rochelle; Feb. 26, Stillman Valley; Feb. 27, Polo, and March 6 at Oregon. At these repair clinics you will have an opportunity to do actual repair work on the carburetors, air cleaner, cooling system, of the tractors, also many minor adjustments and trouble adequate supervision at all times. These clinics will begin at 9 a.m. on the dates stated above will adjourn at 3:30 p.m. We will also have to have advanced reservations for this school to enable us to obtain the make of tractor that each one would like to have.

* * *

Saturday, Jan. 23, will be the final day for the 4-H Judging Training school which is being held at the Farm Bureau office in Rockford. All 4-H members are invited to participate in this training school. The classes on Saturday will include, Duroc, Chester White and Hampshire hogs. Also beef classes, Angus and Hereford. The Herefords will be furnished by Robert Milligan of Kings, Illinois.

Mt. Morris Boy Scouts Plan Circus

MT. MORRIS— The Mt. Morris Boy Scouts are planning a circus for Feb. 27. This will be a county wide meeting and all scouts of Ogle county will take part. About 200 boys will participate in the show which will include Boy Scout, Cub Scout and explorer Scout units.

Besides three ring performances there will be exhibits of scout crafts and skills. The latter may be viewed during the hour preceeding each performance. Admission will be charged for the event, but children under eight years of age accompanied by an adult will be admitted free.

In keeping with the circus tradition, the two performances will include lively appearances of a clown troop.

Tickets will go on sale this week. The circus will be held in the community gymnasium here.

Mt. Morris Rifle Club Nears Anniversary

MT. MORRIS—The Mt. Morris Rifle and Pistol club is nearing its second anniversary. The idea for such an organization here originated when several veterans discussed their experiences in the service.

Interest spread, and in the spring of 1952, a group of men met and organized the club.

Charter members are Ernest Hachmeister, William Meyers, Francis Kaff, Cecil Toler, Curtis Duncan, Harry Horton, Robert Snodgrass, Donald Meyers, Floyd Hachmeister, Joe Franklin, Kermit Miller and Tommy Martin.

Other members of the club are Melvin Kitzmiller, Charles Catlin, Paul Barnhizer, Charles Boebel, Leo Ridenour, William Smith, Malcolm Houghton, Russell Stonebraker, Melvin Beck, Clarence Galor, Clifford Ring, O. H. Boelter and Ray A. Novak.

A junior organization is being planned for children of members of the club.

The rifle range is four miles from Mt. Morris just off Mud Creek road, an ideal spot between two hills. The 400-yard range ends at the far side with a steep hill of several hundred feet of elevation, eliminating the danger of ricocheting bullets.

Edgar Houpt, the owner of the farm, joined the Mt. Morris Rifle and Pistol club and is one of the most active members. His farm machinery was used to build a large revetment to protect target frames, equipment and, most important, the men working on the tarkets during the shooting.

Building of a shelter is in progress at this time. Winter shooting is limited to bench rest firing and heavy calibre practice from standing position, making the shelter fire a relief from cold fingers. The owner member provides fuel for the fires.

An indoor range is being planned if a suitable place can be found.

Oil Well Promoter On Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A Chicago accountant testified at a fraud trial he and members of his family invested a total of $160,000 in a Mississippi oil well promoted by George F. Vasen of suburban Oak Park.

Irving Rothbart said he persuaded Vasen to let him invest $6,000 in 1948 after overhearing conversations about the well between Vasen and Paul Platt, owner of a luggage firm whose books Rothbart was accounting.

Vasen is on trial in U.S. District Court on charges of mail fraud and violation of Securities and Exchange Commission regulations. The government alleges Vasen swindled about 300 investors out of almost two million dollars.

Rothbart testified he gave Vasen more money in 1949, and at one time was told the well would be brought in the next day. Later, he said, Rothbart told a meeting of about 100 investors in Chicago that "We've had a little tough luck" and that drilling would have to be continued.

Several months later, Rothbart testified, Vasen again faced investors, told them the SEC was about to investigate, and said:

"We cannot afford an SEC inquiry now. They would force us to register our securities and the whole world would then know what we have."

Rothbart said he later gave Vasen $15,000, which he said Vasen took on a "personal loan basis" although telling him it would go into the oil well

The trial continues today.

Secy. Weeks Bans Butter Sale to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks has refused to let a Minnesota exporter ship surplus American butter to Russia

The Commerce Department announced Tuesday night that Weeks had formally denied an export license to Dwayne Andreas of the Honeymead Co., Mankato, Minn. The department gave no further details on Weeks's action

The secretary told newsmen last Friday he would not approve a license to permit shipment of butter to Russia at a cost "considerably lower" than prices paid by American housewives.

Andreas had mentioned an offer to pay about 50 cents a pound for a large stock of surplus butter held by the government under the price support program. The government paid dairymen about 65 cents a pound. In Washington, househoders pay 73-75 cents a pound.

French Claim Victory in Indochina

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — The French announced today they have retaken the key Mekong river port of Thakhek, evacuated by the French almost a month ago when the Communist-led Vietminh thrust came after tank-led French forces drove to within six miles of the border town in a sweep aimed at recovering central Laotian territory from the rebels.

The Vietminh apparently never occupied Thakhek, although they surrounded the town and established positions north and south of it, posing a threat to neighboring Thailand across the Mekong. The French said reports from Thakhek spoke of "only a few light clashes with no losses to our side."

The Vietminh drove the French from the town and surrounding area in a surprise drive just before Christmas that split Indochina in two. The French did not defend Thakhek at the time but now they are trying to regain the lost territory.

In the Thai tribal country of northwest Indochina, French artillery opened a heavy barrage against Vietminh troops concentrated around Dien Bien Phu. The rebels continued their buildup for an expected assault on that French fortress.

England Hired

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Forrest W. England, a native of Morrisonville, Ill., has been appointed athletic director and head football coach at the University of Toledo.

England, 41, has been coaching since 1946 at Arkansas State — where last season his football team won nine games and tied one. The school held East Texas State College to a 7-7 tie in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., New Year's Day.

England was given a three-year contract calling for $8,500 yearly by Toledo.

Coal Operators Behind in Pay To Miner Fund

LANSFORD, Pa (AP) — A prominent coal operator says some anthracite companies are in arrears in their payments to United Mine Workers' health and welfare fund by some 1½ million dolars.

The UMW Tuesday announced a 50 per cent cut from $100 to $50 a month in the retirement pension of hard coal miners The union's reason was a continuing decline in revenue resulting from a steady drop in hard coal production in recent years.

Glenn O Kidd, president of the Lehigh Navigation Coal Co. said operators who are in arrears of pension fund payments are using the money to under-cut the price of coal. He said they are withholding payment in violation of signed agreements with the UMW.

"A ruinously competitive situation in the industry" has resulted, Kidd said "Legitimate" companies Kidd said, are reaching the point where they cannot continue to survive.

Lehigh Navigation Coal, he said, paid about $1,300,000 into the fund last year in line with contractual obligations, and said it is in the "impossible situation" of having to compete with companies which are not paying.

The UMW's anthracite welfare and pension funds are derived from a 50 cent per ton royalty on anthracite production.

'Slave Day' Plan Raises Polio Fund

VISTA, Calif. (AP)—More than 125 businessmen, public officials and civic leaders were "slaves" here Tuesday in a unique fund raising project for the March of Dimes.

The "Slave Day" was the second phase of the polio fund-raising drive in this northern San Diego County community. Last month the men were auctioned off as "slaves" by Howard D. Cunnemon, newspaper distributor. That project raised more than $1,200. Another $1,000 was collected Tuesday.

Businessmen offered to work in other stores from 1 to 5 p m. A percentage of their sales went to the polio fund

"Slaves" who didn't show up were captured by a "posse" and led by "Sheriff" Graehme Smith, who normally is pastor of the Vista Community Church

They were taken before "Judge" Frank Jones, a hardware store owner, who fined the violators a total of $100. Attorneys donated their time to plead their clients' cases — but needless to say the prosecution won all of them.

Leon Bone, Vista regular judge in justice court, meanwhile was working behind a counter in a coffee shop

Other businessmen and civic leaders shined shoes, waited on tables in cafes and collect newspaper subscriptions, with part of the money going to the March of Dimes.

Borrows Idea

ROSLYN HEIGHTS, N.Y. (AP) — John Newton, 49, an electrical engineer, borrowed an idea from a prison death house Tuesday to kill himself.

In the basement of his house he wired a transformer to two metal plates to step up the house voltage, police said, and then fastened the plates to his body in front and back in the same manner as electrodes of an electric chair are fastened to a condemned person. Then he threw the switch.

Congress Should Face Up to Ike's Farm-Problem Plan

By any realistic election-year measure, President Eisenhower's farm program embodying the principle of flexible price supports has very little prospect of approval.

The existing policy of high, rigid farm price supports is obviously an unsatisfactory solution to the agricultural problem. Most farmers themselves will admit that, privately, if not otherwise.

The outstanding feature of present law is that it encourages farmers to produce, not for the market, but for storage. Government warehouses are bulging with a variety of commodities taken off farmers' hands in keeping with the support program. These surpluses constitute a travesty on economic planning.

Yet many years of operating under the high, fixed support arrangement have led most farmers to identify this plan tightly with their personal well-being. With all its faults, they prefer it to some other, untried system—whatever its advertised virtues for them and the general public.

* * *

Politicians understand this mood, indeed, often seem to encourage it. So it would be the height of folly to expect congress in an election year to risk the political peril inherent in any new farm policy.

At the very best, one might hope for some kind of compromise that might continue rigid supports for a time but lead gradually into a more discriminating flexible system at a future date.

After all, Mr. Eisenhower's administration has given a year's intensive study to the farm problem, and has emerged with a detailed program drafted scrupulously—crop by crop—to provide a saner result for all concerned. It would seem a great pity for all this intelligent effort to be wasted simply because congress has the standard, election-year trembles.

Whether or not Mr. Eisenhower's flexible plan makes any headway, congress will find itself virtually compelled to attend to one part of the president's farm program: the disposition of huge surpluses now accumulating.

* * *

The president is firmly opposed to destroying any food or fiber. Likewise he understands the danger to world trade relationships that would lie in any wholesale dumping of stored products. Thus he proposes that these pile-ups somehow be "insulated" from normal channels of distribution.

Translated into plain English, that seems to mean disposing of stocks of butter, eggs, grain and cotton by extraordinary devices unrelated to regular trading. These could include use of food in disaster relief here and abroad, in school lunch programs, and the like. Some materials could be stockpiled for war or other emergency. And some could be carefully applied to programs of foreign aid, especially in underprivileged lands.

If the congress would grapple with even this much of the president's carefully wrought program, we could take it as a sign that America's politicians have realized at last that they cannot forever run away from their fundamental problems. And we could hope that in another year—free of the voter's hot breath—they might get to the heart of the matter.

HOLLYWOOD— (NEA) —Exclusively Yours: Jane Russell may be pouting over Howard Hughes' row with the censors over her latest film, "French Line," but the grapevine buzz at RKO is that she may re-sign with Hughes instead of forming an independent film making company, as she announced several months ago.

GOP Should Try to Avoid Battles in This Congress

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Avoiding pitched battles over long-standing and high controversial foreign policy issues should be a major objective for Republican leaders in this session of Congress.

New foreign trade policy, the Bricker amendment, extension of mutual security and foreign aid programs and proposals for joint U. S.-Canadian development of the St. Lawrence seaway, are major matters over which knockdown, drag-out fights could arise.

Congress extended the old, reciprocal-trade agreements program until June 12, 1954. Before that time, President Eisenhower's commission on foreign-trade policy, headed by Clarence M. Randall, must make its report and the Congress must act on it. Long hearings and hot debate are in prospect, as this involves the tariff fight that has been a bitter political issue for over 100 years.

Ohio Sen. John W. Bricker's proposed constitutional amendment to define the President's power to make treaties and executive agreements binding on the U. S. is a highly emotional subject.

The original Bricker amendment would practically have given the individual states a veto over the President's treaty-making powers. As modified by Senate committee and as it now stands the Bricker amendment would not contain this restriction, but it would require legislation by Congress to make the provisions of any treaty effective as U. S. law. President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and Attorney General Brownell all oppose the amendment.

* * *

ANOTHER BILL MERELY RESTATES PRESENT LAW

Sen. William F. Knowland of California has introduced a substitute amendment which merely restates present law. It has the approval of President Eisenhower, but not Senator Bricker.

President Eisenhower's recommendations on the size of the continuing foreign aid and mutual security programs are being saved for his messages to the new session of Congress.

Secretary Dulles has said these programs must go on. Foreign Operations Administrator Harold Stassen has said they can be reduced by a billion dollars or so from this year's $4.5 billion. But there is considerable sentiment in Congress to cut it further.

Another showdown which the Congress hopes it can avoid, is over the Foreign Operations amendment by Rep. James P. Richards (D.-S.C.) which would require that half of the European arms aid must go to building forces.

The St. Lawrence seaway matter has been kicked around in Congress for years in a game of conflicting local and business interests. Final approval is still uncertain

Ratification of the Mutual Defense treaty with Korea is a major matter for Senate consideration. Treaty was signed Aug. 7, 1953. Status of peace-treaty negotiations, the conduct of South Korean President Syngman Rhee's government, or a new outbreak of hostilities could all have bearing on final Senate action.

Legislation is required to implement a new international copyright convention with 40 nations. The convention can't be ratified until corresponding changes have been made in U. S. law. There's a legislative jam over which will be done first.

BILLS TO CURTAIN IMPORT OF BOOKS PENDING

In connection with this, bills have been pending in Congress for two years to restrict imports into the U. S. of books printed in English in other countries. This matter was given no attention by the last session of Congress.

Ratification of the North American regional broadcast agreement is another sticker. Canada, Cuba, Dominican Republic and United Kingdom, acting for the Bahama Islands, are involved. U. S. broadcasters now having clear channels are fighting allocation of these channels for use in the other countries.

Something will have to be done to reconstitute the International Claims Commission. It was created to handle claims of U. S. citizens for property seized under nationalization laws of foreign countries. A kitty of $400,000 from Panama and $17 million from Yugoslavia has to be divided up.

A number of tax treaties and similar minor international complications are now in negotiation, but there is no certainty how many will be ready for action by the new session of Congress.

Discard Turns Out as Key Game Play

By OSWALD JACOBY

The most beautiful hand of the Winter National Tournament, recently conducted in Dallas by the American Contract Bridge League, was played by John R. Crawford, of Philadelphia, in the open team event, which his team won.

West decided to open the unbid suit, so led the six of clubs. Dummy played low, East put up the queen, and Crawford won in his hand with the king. Crawford next led the queen of spades from his hand, and let it ride for a finesse.

East won with his singleton king of spades and returned a club, since he was quite pleased with that suit. West was allowed to hold the second round of clubs with his jack, and he promptly led the suit again, forcing out dummy's ace.

On the third round of clubs Crawford had to discard. He casually discarded the ten of hearts, which eventually turned out to be a key play.

Johnny planned to take another spade finesse eventually, and hoped to discard another heart on one of dummy's spades. It didn't matter much whether he discarded the ten (or nine) of hearts now or later; and he hoped it would confuse his opponents.

After winning the third round of clubs in dummy with the ace, Crawford led the jack of diamonds, and West properly discarded a low spade. This was a bitter blow, since declarer had been hoping for a 3-3 diamond break.

Declarer continued with the ten of diamonds, and West had to discard a heart, since he couldn't spare another spade. Rather naturally, West discarded the six of hearts.

Crawford next finessed dummy's nine of spades and East discarded a diamond. Apparently declarer was in dummy for the last time, but he didn't cash the ace of spades. Instead, he led a heart and ducked the nine around to West's queen.

West tried to get out by returning the king of hearts to Crawford's ace, but Crawford then returned the seven of hearts, which forced West to win with the eight. West then had to lead a spade, allowing dummy to win the last two tricks (Crawford's eighth and ninth tricks) by a finesse.

If Crawford had kept the ten of hearts (instead of the seven), or if West had discarded the eight of hearts, Crawford would have been forced to win the third heart trick. And then he would be stuck in his hand and forced to lose the last two tricks to East.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
1 Heart	Pass	2 Clubs	Pass
2 Diamonds	Pass	?

You, South, hold: Spade 2, Hearts 9-4, Diamonds K-J-6-2, Clubs A-Q-J-8-5-2. What do you do?

A—Bid four diamonds. This jump bid, past the level of three no-trump, shows both your strength and your unbalanced distribution. North will almost surely bid game in diamonds, and will try for a slam if he has a good enough hand.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 7-3-2, Hearts 9-4, Diamonds J-6-2, Clubs A-K-Q-8-5. What do you do?

What's Right?

She is old enough to know better and yet every year she insists on showing all of her expensive Christmas gifts to her friends who have much less than she does.

A kind and thoughtful rule to follow is never show your gifts to anyone if yours will make theirs look smaller.

Real Successful Women Led Families Through Adversity

In the January issue of a national woman's magazine is the magazine's selection of the "six most successful women." They are all women in public life.

I'd like to add to the list every little-known woman who, by her own strength, initiative and courage, held her own family together in 1953.

As an example, I'll tell you about one particular woman who rates anybody's list of "most successful" women.

One day she was a full-time homemaker, busy as she thought she would ever be looking after a house and making it a real home for her husband and two children.

The next day that picture fell apart, as though it had been made up of so many pieces of a jigsaw puzzle.

Her husband had a serious ailment that would confine him to a hospital for at least a year.

How to gather up the pieces that were left and reassemble the picture of a home—with the husband and father in a hospital, the family's income cut off, and the frightening fact that she had married early and had never held a job? That was what faced her.

GAVE HUSBAND COURAGE BECAUSE HERS NEVER FAILED

Yet she put those pieces together one by one. She found a job, and in order to hold it taught herself to type at night. She gave a college girl room and board for being at home when her two children came home from school.

At night she sewed so that her little girls could still have pretty clothes.

And she kept her husband's courage up, because her own never faltered.

Her husband is out of the hospital now, back in a home his wife held together. So this woman is my nomination for "most successful woman."

You probably know of at least one woman you could nominate, too . . . some woman who singlehandedly brought a family through a trying time by grit and determination.

Those are the really successful women in any year.

Mother Arraigned For Slaying Tots

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Folrence Dalton, 34, accused of killing her two children, sat in a wheel chair with her eyes closed Tuesday at her court arraignment. It was in the psycopathic ward of receiving hospital.

An innocent plea was entered for her by the court.

Police were summoned to the Dalton home Friday night to discover the children, David, 10, and Shirley, 5, beaten and slashed to death. Their mother lay on a bed bleeding from gashed wrists and neck.

The father, Charles, 33, said he and his wife had been arguing about the religious education of the children.

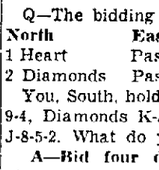
Over Million Housing Units Started in '53

WASHINGTON (AP)— For the fifth straight year, more than a million housing units were placed under construction in 1953.

The bureau of labor statistics reported today that 1,102,400 new permanent non-farm dwelling units were started last year. This was the third best housing year on record, comparing with 1,127,000 units started in 1952, and 1,396,000 in the 1950 record year.



The Doctor Says:

Changes in Adolescent Girls May Come at Different Ages

By EDWIN P. JORDON, M. D.

A correspondent writes that her 15-year-old daughter has not yet shown signs of maturity, although most of her companions have. The physical changes associated with adolescence in girls do not always come at the same age, nor are they completed at the same rate.

Generally speaking, there is no cause for undue concern if there is delay until 14 or 15, or if they start before the age of 13. Apparently, these changes are affected by family background, racial descent, climate and other influences.

The appearance of the physical changes of adolescence in girls can be quite a shock to he girls unless properly managed. Every girl approaching 12 should be properly instructed, preferably by her mother and made to realize that about one and one-half million other girls in the country are going through approximately the same experience at the same time.

The changes of adolescence should be accepted as a step towards maturity by the girls and by their parents. When this is not done an unexpected event may cause some emotional distress.

It should be explained that the changes about to take place are the result of increased activity on the part of those hormones or internal glands which have to do with femininity.

GIRLS BECOME NERVOUS

After adolescence begins and usually for two or three years thereafter, girls are normally somewhat more nervous and less consistent in their behavior than they were before or will be later.

Parents should not worry about the seeming personality change which often occurs. When an adolescent girl is unreasonable, parents do well to ignore it altogether, take it calmly and yet continue to be firm about those things which are really important.

Joe Kellen And Bride to Reside Here

Making their first home at 1213 Seventh st., Dixon, will be newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Kellen, who have returned from a wedding trip through Iowa and Wisconsin.

The bride is the former Mary Rose Levan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levan, Rt. 2, Dixon.

Baskets of white gladioli, emerald ferns, candelabra and a white carpet decorated the Immanuel Lutheran church, Dxon, for the December wedding. Rev. Paul Lechner officiated at the early evening candlelight double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Vance Hopper, Dixon, was nuptial organist, and Miss Barbara Hopper, Dixon, soloist.

Lace Over Satin Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the pretty bride donned a white lace over satin gown designed with a fitted bodice, trimmed with sequins, long sleeves and a train. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was edged in lace and held by a crown of rhinestones.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue. Her rhinestone necklace and earrings were gifts from the bridegroom and she carried a white prayerbook upon which had been placed a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Janet Beard, Rt 2, Dixon, was maid of honor, and Miss Donna Andreas, Rock Falls, bridesmaid. Their full length gowns of net over taffeta were designed with ruffled skirts. They wore headbands that matched their gowns and were graced with pearls. Their pearl necklaces were gifts from the bride.

Blue Frock

Miss Beard wore a blue gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations and varigated holly leaves and holly tied with pink and silver ribbon.

Miss Andreas was gowned in pink and her bouquet was designed like that carried by the maid of honor only it was tied with blue and silver ribbon

Wayne Levan, Rt. 2, Dixon, brother of the bride, served as best man and Cpl. Thomas Izer, Fort Knox, Ky. was groomsman. Bernard Gerdes, Rt. 1, Dixon, cousin of the bride, and Doug Kellen, Amboy, nephew of the bridegroom, ushered. The men of the wedding party wore white jackets and dark trousers.

Flower Girl

Nancy Levan, Dixon, was flower girl for her aunt. Yellow net over taffeta fashioned her floor length frock that was styled after the bride's gown. Her headdress was of white carnations and she carried a basket of rose petals. The necklace she wore was a gift from the bride.

Kenny Levan, Dixon, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a round white satin pillow.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pale blue crepe with lace insets through the skirt and top of the bodice. Her hat and gloves were white and shoes and purse, black. Her corsage was red roses centered with a white gardenia.

Reception For 125

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in Loveland Community House, Dixon, for 125 guests.

Miss Bernice Gerdes, poured the coffee; Miss Darlene Seagren, poured punch; Mrs. Wayne Levan, served the four tiered wedding cake; Miss Ruth Zentz and Mrs. Fred Hamburg jr assisted with the gifts and Mrs Harold Slonecker was in charge of the bride's book. They all wore white carnation corsages.

When the newlyweds departed for their wedding trip the bride was wearing an aqua suit with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

A graduate of Amboy high school the bride has been employed at the Dixon Home Telephone company. The bridegroom who is employed by the State highway department in Dixon, is also an Amboy high school graduate. He has recently returned after two years service with the United States army.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Sterling, Amboy, Streator, Canton, Rock Falls, Morrison, and Harmon, Ill. and Clinton, Ia.

Travel Club Hears About Alaska From Alice M. Sheller

"This was the realization of a dream," Miss Alice Sheller told members and guests of the Dixon Travel Club when she spoke Tuesday evening illustrating her talk with excellent slides of the beautiful mountain scenery, lakes, and rivers of our northern most possession. "In fact," she continued, "I'd like to take the trip again. The mountains are even more beautiful than our western ones and every turn of the road brings new beauty."

Miss Sheller and her parents left Dixon August 7, 1953, and returned Sept. 6, after driving nearly 10 000 miles. Many sites along the Alaskan Highway were of especial interest to the Shellers since their son and brother, Lawrence, had been stationed there constructing bridges during World War II and they could identify his locations from his descriptions

The 160 mile side trip to Circle, Alaska, which is only a scant 50 miles from the Arctic Circle was of especial interest. Flowers and garden produce are especially luxuriant in the short growing season for the far north.

Urges Car Travel

Miss Sheller maintains that travel by car is the best and cheapest mode of transportation even though in the middle of the Alaskan Highway gasoline was almost 70 cents a gallon.

Before Miss Sheller spoke Mrs. Ralph Newman, vice president, conducted a business meeting.

The refreshment table featured an igloo and Eskimos near an icy lake with a totem pole as sentinel in the lonely northern scene Mrs. Newman presided at the coffee urn while the hostesses, Misses Ruth Chiverton and Lorraine Missman, served light refreshments.

High Court Upholds Law Barring Truck 'Habituals'

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois Supreme court today reaffirmed a Sept. 24 decision upholding suspension of habitual truck overweight violators from the highways but making an exception of interstate haulers.

The court said again the 1951 state law providing for withdrawal of road privileges was in the main constitutional.

However, in an opinion written by Chief Justice Walter V. Schaefer, the tribunal added:

"The statute is invalid to the extent that it provides for suspension of the right to engage in interstate commerce upon the highways of this state."

Present Law Defined

Under the law, a truck operator convicted of 10 load limit infractions within a 12 months period can be summoned to court for a hearing on whether he is a habitual violator.

Upon an affirmative finding, a suspension up to one year could be ordered.

The case involved Hayes Freight Lines, Inc., which was called into court at Salem after accumuating 157 overweight violations. Hayes operates in Illinois and seven other states.

After the September ruling, both Hayes and Atty. Gen. Latham Castle asked the Supreme Court to consider the case again.

Hayes contended the entire statute was unconstitutional. Castle argued it was valid in its entirety.

States Rights

In today's opinion, Schaefer conceded that regulation of truck weights is a matter of "vital local concern and one which Congress has left open" to the states.

"On the other hand," the opinion said, "Congress has legislated in this field, to the end of developing, coordinating and preserving a national transportation system."

Weighing the effect of the state action against the announced purpose of Congress, the court concluded the state law cannot be applied to interstate truck operations.

The court said it was not necessarily taking the position that the state lacked authority to invoke such suspensions where, for example, a truck firm failed to pay state taxes.

Wholesale Food Prices In Decline

NEW YORK (AP)— The Dun & Bradstreet index of wholesale food prices dropped this week for the first time in 11 weeks.

The index declined to $6.96 from last week's $7.03—the highest point touched by the index since June 19, 1951. A year ago, the index registered $6.23.

A downturn in green coffee and cocoa beans helped pull the index lower. Also declining were lard, cheese, raisins, prunes, steers and lambs.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Harry Not Homesick For Capitol

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Harry S. Truman looked back today on a year out of the White House and said he wasn't a bit homesick for the place.

A year ago today he shared attention with President - elect Eisenhower at the inauguration ceremonies in Washington.

Today he drove his own car from his Independence, Mo., home to his Federal Reserve Bank Building office here. Stepping in at his usual reporting hour of 9 a.m. despite slick streets and snow.

There he was met by one newsman.

The former president said with a smile that he still was making his "adjustment to civil life,"; that his memoirs were taking up most of his time, and as for being homesick for Washington, he didn't miss it a bit, but did miss his friends there.

"The only place I've ever been homesick for is Missouri," he added.

All-in-all he had spent a very pleasant year at home, he said.

With that a secretary came up with a sheaf of papers, Truman smiled a farewell and ducked into his own office, to be at his business of being a plain citizen.

Reuther Witness Denies He Has Shooting Case Info

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Donald Ritchie, key figure in the Reuther case, today denied, in a statement issued by his lawyers, any knowledge of or connection with the 1948 assassination attempt on CIO President Walter Reuther.

The statement signed by Ritchie, now in the Essex county jail, awaiting extradition proceedings, was given to newspapers. It was a complete denial of previous statements made by Ritchie to Detroit police about the shooting of Reuther.

Ritchie's statements were used by Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien as the basis for warrants implicating four men in the shooting.

Named in the warrants were: Carl Renda, 35, Santo (Sam) Perrone, 56, Peter Lombardo, 51, and Clarence Jacob, 48.

O'Brien, previously, said his case against the four would collapse without Ritchie's testimony.

O'Brien said he had heard of Ritchie's statement.

"It's not a surprise," O'Brien said, "after all the man's a defendant in the case.

"I plan to proceed with the extradition against Ritchie Thursday."

O'Brien said he did not know the meaning of a portion of Ritchie's repudiation which explained his statements to O'Brien. It read:

"When the complete facts are known it will become apparent that the methods adopted to obtain the statements will explain their existence."

Authorities said this, apparently, was a reference to the $5,000 reward which Ritchie received from the CIO United Automobile Workers after he made what he claimed was a "confession" to O'Brien.

Ritchie's original statement to O'Brien reportedly was unsigned. The statement named Jacobs, an uncle of Ritchie's as the "triggerman" in the Reuther shooting.

Ritchie eluded his police guard on Jan. 8 and fled to Canada.

Attempt to Bar Atty. Besse as Kernan Counsel

Arguments will be heard in Lee county circuit court today on why a Sterling attorney should or should not be permitted to act as counsel for Robert Eugene Kernan, 25, of 728 E. Third st., Dixon, indicted by the grand jury on a charge of rape.

State's Atty. James Bales objected to the appearance of Robert Besse, Sterling lawyer, as an associate counsel in the case when Kernan was arraigned Jan. 8 before Judge Robert Bracken.

The defendant also is represented by Atty. J. Courtney Ryan, Sterling. Kernan was given until Feb. 1 to plead to the rape charge.

Atty. Besse is listed on the indictment against Kernan as a witness for the state. Being a witness on behalf of the prosecution and defense counsel at the same time is believed to complicate matters.

Kernan was charged with raping Mrs. Deloris Whitlock, 19, Sterling, a wife and mother, on the morning of Nov. 14, near the Dixon country club. He is free on $5,000 bond.

arriving in Chicago at 8:10 p m.

There is a mail train that leaves Dixon at 7:50 p m. and arrives in Chicago at 10:30 p m

In the event the Clinton passenger is discontinued, Dixon might be able to convince the railroad to halt the San Francisco Overland here, in addition to its stop at Sterling.

The eastbound train stops in Sterling at 11:12 a.m., goes through Dixon at 11:25 a m . and arrives in Chicago at 1:30 p m

According to railroad officials here, an average of two persons use the eastbound Clinton passenger train while virtually no Dixon residents ride the westbound train

Most persons returning to Dixon from Chicago ride the City of Portland. If they miss that one, they have a layover of about five hours until the Gold Coast leaves Chicago.

Discontinuance of the Clinton passenger will effect the Dixon post office. Approximately two railroad carts of outgoing mail are handled on this train and about 24 sacks of incoming mail.

Might Use Trucks

Acting Dixon Postmaster Charles Redebaugh said today efforts are being made to avoid having the mail disrupted, that a system of trucks might be empoyed to fill the gap.

Another possibility, as observed in other postal sections of the country, is that of a highway postal service, using buses equipped the same as railroad cars to handle the mail. If such a practice is inaugurated here, it would facilitate more efficient delivery of north and southbound mail, which normally must travel to Chicago first.

Voss Promoted To Army Captain

Lt. J. J. Voss, formerly associated with Dr. Raymond Worsley in a dental practice here, has been promoted to captain.

Lt. Voss is now in France with the army dental corps. His wife joined him there recently. He will resume his practice here upon the expiration of a term of duty.

18 Leading Banks Report Rise in Profits, Resources

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)— Eighteen billion-dollar banks in the nation report total resources and earnings rose in 1953.

But 13 of them report total deposits slipped a little from former record highs. The 18, however, hold about one-fourth of the nation's total bank deposits.

Each of the 18 banking giants has both deposits and resources in excess of one billion dollars.

The top bank in both categories is the Bank of America National Trust & Savings Assn., San Francisco. Its resources and deposits are each around the eight billion dollar figure.

Resources Gain

If you could combine the 18 top banks, you'd have a financial concern with total resources of $50,590,748,000. This was a gain of 34 million dollars in the total resources of the same 18 banks at the start of last year.

Combined deposits of the 18 billion-dollar-club members total $45,891,890,303. This was a dip of around 86 million dollars during the year.

Total deposits in all of the nation's banks at the end of 1953 aren't yet available.

For most banks earnings were up in 1953, even if total deposits slipped a little. This was because the total of bank loans was higher; and because interest rates on these loans were mostly higher, too.

Show Gains

Bank statements of the 18 giants show they are no exception. Operating earnings of the Bank of America rose 10 per cent in 1953, and the National City Bank of New York, the second largest in the nation, reports a gain of 9 per cent.

These could well prove to be above the average for the nation as a whole, when all bank earnings statements are in and tabulated. The latest available figures show the Federal Reserve Board reporting that its 6,800 member banks earned about 5 per cent more in the first half of 1953 than in the similar period the year before. The six-month profits after taxes totalled around 436 million dollars, the board reports. Before taxes, the earnings gain was 16 per cent.

Are Sensitive

Bankers are sensitive about any misunderstanding of their earnings increase, however. The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, in its annual report out today, shows a before-taxes earnings gain of about 5 per cent. But the nation's third largest bank points out that bank earnings last year were low in comparison with other industries.

Monday night, the Rock River chapter, Illinois Society of Engineers, met in the Loveland building and elected Robert Hofmann, Dixon consultant, president. Other officers elected were W. O. Moore, vice president; L. F. Holstein, secretary-treasurer.

The 15 engineers present viewed movies furnished by the Rock Island railroad.

President Celebrates Anniversary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower started his second year in office today and a close associate said "he s thriving on the challenge' of the big job ahead

Cabinet members Republican party officials and White House staff members arranged to present a surprise gift to the President at a ceremony in his office commemorating the first anniversary of his inauguration

The 63-year-old Chief Executive scheduled a breakfast conference with Secretary of State Dulles who flies to Berlin Thursday for the Big Four foreign ministers conference

A Cabinet business session was listed just ahead of the anniversary ceremony

People who have worked with Eisenhower in the White House report that he seems to be in cheerful and in top physical condition

One aide, who asked that his name be withheld, said the President chafes somewhat under the confinement of the presidency — although he has traveled 36,474 miles since his inauguration.

Ike Weathers First Year in White House

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—When President Eisenhower hopped out of bed this morning and looked in the mirror, he may have thought: "How did I ever come to let myself in for this?"

He had moved into the White House one year ago It had been a tough, grinding year The face which gazed back at him in the mirror looked a little older

He was still as jaunty as ever, working harder and longer hours, perhaps, than any he had endured since those days on the eve of the invasion of Normandy, nine years ago

He seemed, judging from the quick grin he could produce, to be enjoying his job He was still enormously popular And he was still amazingly free from personal abuse

In his first year, he frankly concedes, he was a political novice Some of his critics said he was more anxious to be liked than to lead

Last year he had Sen Robert A Taft of Ohio doing much of the infighting for him at the Capitol. Taft's dead now.

Toward the end of his first year, Eisenhower gave signs of a toughening attitude That was when Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) made his unexpected criticism of Eisenhower's continued aid to allies who trade with Red China Secretary of State Dulles replied, defending his policy, and Eisenhower backed Dulles.

If that wasn t Eisenhower's notification to congress his novice days were over, maybe this was His statement that the Republicans don't deserve to keep control of congress in November's elections unless they pass a progressive program

Will he fight for his program? Everybody's waiting to see

Congressmen Want Air Academy on Illinois Land

WASHINGTON (AP)— Two Illinois house members believe that if congress sets up a new air force academy it should be located on a 17,000-acre federally owned tract in Fulton county, Illinois

Reps Simpson and Chiperfield, Republicans, urged Air Force Secretary Talbott in a letter Tuesday to give every consideration to the Illinois site if congress authorizes the academy

The Fulton county site, Simpson and Chiperfield said, was called Camp Ellis during World War II and was used by the army as a training area

Later the Atomic Energy Commission planned to take over the area but abandoned the idea last fall after spending about two million dollars in a "get ready program," the two representatives said.

Young Has 'All Clear' in NYC Hope

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert R Young, clear of all connections with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad was free today to achieve his ambition of controlling the New York Central System—if he can

The 56 year-old Texas-born financier announced Tuesday night that he and a group of associates are quitting the C&O and severing all ties that have kept him from setting on the Central board.

The C&O announced that Young had resigned as board chairman of the C&O With him went his companion in an astonishing rise to power, Allan P Kirby, who stepped out as president of the railroad

For years Young—the most discussed and unorthodox figure in American railroading—has talked of controlling the Central

The extent of Young s present holdings of New York Central stock could not be learned immediately

The C&O and the Alleghany Corp —The "Young interests" then —obtained working control of the New York Central as early as 1947 But they were forbidden from exercising it by the Interstate Commerce Commission in a move against interlocking railroad directorates

Young, aided by Woolworth heir Kirby and with a "shoestring" investment of three million dollars, took control of the 900-million-dollar Alleghany Corp, in 1937 and, in turn, more than a billion dollars worth of railroad facilities.

He rebuilt the bankrupt Van Sweringen railroad empire during the subsequent 10 stormy years

Unemployment May Be Over Two Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Labor department figures just out indicate that unemployment may be well over the two million mark

The department s bureau of employment security reported Tuesday that 467,500 workers filed jobless pay claims during the week that ended Jan 9. This is the largest weekly total recorded since August 1945

The bureau said 1 916 000 workers were claiming unemployment compensation benefits during the week ended Jan 2 It added that the new batch of claims could not be added to this total because some of the claimants usually find new jobs

However only about 36 million out of the nation s work force of over 60 million are covered by the unemployment compensation program Presumably some of those outside the program also are out of work

Aces Drop From Rt. 72 Tournament

Forreston Tackles Leaf River in First Loop Tilt Tonight

LEAF RIVER —(Special) —Co-favorite Byron brushed past Pecatonica but Ashton was eliminated during the opening games of the Route 72 conference varsity tournament last night.

Byron toppled Pecatonica, 70-53, in the first varsity game, but Ashton, off to a bad first quarter, dropped a 65-46 decision to Stillman Valley in the nightcap. Prior to the varsity games, Pecatonica wound up the frosh-soph first round by stopping Winnebago, 51-34.

Tonight, Forreston, paired with Byron as co-favorite, and currently leading the conference race, goes into action against Leaf River in the opening game at 7 p.m. and Monroe Center and Winnebago collide in the second game.

Can't Keep Pace

Ashton just couldn't keep up the pace in the first period as Stillman Valley romped to a 22-8 first quarter lead. From there on, the Aces, though outscored in every quarter, managed to play Stillman on nearly even terms. In the final three quarters, Stillman outscored Ashton by only five points.

Larry Butler, with 13 points, and Ray Nelson, with 11 points, were high for Ashton, while Gene Schulze with 12 points, was high for Stillman.

Byron needed two periods to salt away its game with Pecatonica. The Tigers held a slim 11-8 first period lead, but wasted little more time as they climbed to a 35-21 margin at halftime and were able to coast home from there on.

McNames High

Byron scored consistently, getting 11 points in the first and third periods and 24 points in the second and fourth quarters.

Gene McNames was the big gun for the Tigers, getting eight baskets and eight free throws for 24 points. Bob Wickwire was second with 15 points. Pat Kelly's 27 points were high for the night and Pecatonica.

In the frosh-soph game, Pecatonica raced to a 24-14 halftime lead and kept up the pressure to win. Dwayne Cole with 20 points was high for Pecatonica while Bob Hurd's 17 points topped Winnebago.

Irish Basketball Team Catching Up With Grid Prestige

NEW YORK (AP)— Notre Dame, for years a synonym for winning football, this winter has produced one of its finest basketball teams.

Beaten by Indiana and Bradley early in the season, the Irish climbed to sixth in The Associated Press poll after whipping previously unbeaten Holy Cross by 22 points last week.

Tuesday night the Irish trounced Purdue 95-74 for their 10th victory. Joe Bertrand scored 25 points and four other Notre Dame players collected 10 or more.

Howard Cann, veteran coach at New York university, says balance appears to be the big thing in Notre Dame's favor.

"What a bench they've got," he declared after a losing trip to South Bend. "I couldn't tell any difference between their first five and their next seven. Any one of them could be a starter for me. And their freshmen—terrific;"

Holy Cross, which had won 11 straight until it ran afoul of Notre Dame, added No. 2 to its new winning streak with an 82-67 decision over Dartmouth. Togo Palazzi scored 38 points.

North Carolina State knocked North Carolina out of first place in the Atlantic Coast conference in a rough-and-tumble 84-77 encounter at Chapel Hill. Seventy-four fouls were called and State scored 38 points on free throws.

Expect Two to Five to Join Baseball's Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's Hall of Fame, now numbering 70 members, is expected to be increased by two and perhaps as many as five today when the ballots are counted in the 14th annual election.

The ballots of some 300 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America, have been under lock and key in Commissioner Ford Frick's office.

Rules of the election require that a player's name be on 75 per cent of the ballots, and he must have been out of organized ball at least five years.

Those who received more than 100 votes last year — Joe DiMaggio, the New York Yankee Clipper; Bill Dickey, former catcher and now coach with the Yankees; and Ted Lyons, ex-Chicago White Sox pitcher and manager and now Brooklyn coach — are exempt from the latter rule.

Walter (Rabbit) Maranville, the great little shortstop who died recently, appears to be the outstanding candidate. Last year he received 174 votes, 24 short of election.

Bill Terry, one of the all-time New York Giant greats and former manager, also is considered a strong candidate. Terry polled 191 votes a year ago.

Jack Dempsey Recommends Elimination

CHICAGO (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey today suggested an elimination tournament to uncover a "real" challenger to Rocky Marciano's title.

Dempsey, visiting hospitalized vets at the nearby Great Lakes Naval Training Center, said that former champion Ezzard Charles, while appearing a worthy contender, still should dispose of Nino Valdes for the right to fight Marciano.

Charles was outpointed by Valdes last year.

Dempsey said the elimination should be conducted between Charles, Valdes, Dan Bucceroni and Danny Nardico.

"Tex Rickard made me go through an elimination before I got my title shot against Jess Willard. It started at Fort Sheridan (Ill.) when I knocked out Jim Flynn in 1918.

"Then Rickard made me fight Bill Brennan, Fred Fulton and Carl Morris, before he would consider me for Willard."

Dempsey knocked out Flynn, Fulton and Morris in one round and Brennan in six. Then in 1919 he made a bloody mess of Willard to take the heavyweight title in three rounds.

NEW YORK (AP) — The board of governors of the National Basketball Association meets here today for the first time since the Jack Molinas gambling case broke.

Molinas, rookie star of the Fort Wayne Pistons, was suspended Jan 10 for betting on games.

The standard NBA contract calls for automatic suspension of any player who gambles on the games, regardless of whether he bets for or against his team. Molinas has declared he bet only on his team to win.

The New York Knickerbockers, leaders of the eastern division in the NBA were hard pressed in their 78-75 victory over the Milwaukee Hawks Tuesday night. The Philadelphia Warriors broke a four-game losing streak by defeating the Boston Celtics 89-73 and the second-place Rochester Royals handed Fort Wayne a 73-67 setback.

Bob Cousy, star Celtic guard, was held to one field goal and four fouls by Philadelphia's Paul Walther. Cousy was banished by referee Sid Borgia, in the fourth period for insulting remarks.

St. Louis Preps Plan for Better Sportsmanship

ST. LOUIS (AP)— St. Louis high school students, casting worried eyes on the recent Detroit incident, are trying to find a way to promote better sportsmanship among prep athletic fans.

There have been some cases of rowdyism at St. Louis prep events, but nothing to match the Detroit flareup in which a star basketball center was stabbed and seriously wounded. The stabbing led to a ban on all night athletics in Detroit's public high schools.

In St. Louis, the all-city high school student council thinks it may be a good idea to set up some type of reward for good sportsmanship. Trophies, certificates or an extra school holiday have been considered.

The council condemned excessive "riding" of referees, booing opposing players, and attempts to distract opposing players.

D. Anderson Gets Sudden Death Basket

Scored on Tip-Off Play After Missing Same Shot Earlier

OHIO — (Special) — Dick Anderson proved to be a hero here last night after he almost became the goat as Ohio gained revenge by defeating Franklin Grove, 52-50.

Anderson scored the tieing basket that sent the game into overtime and then tallied the winning basket in the second overtime period after having missed an easy lay-up shot on the very first play of the sudden death period.

Ohio took a 26-23 halftime lead but Franklin Grove rallied to lead, 41-36 at the end of the third period.

The Bulldogs finally caught Franklin Grove with two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter but the Wildcats went ahead again before Anderson scored his game tying basket on a jump shot from about five feet out just before the gun went off.

Tie in Overtime

In the first overtime, both teams scored two points. Franklin Grove again took the lead when Hecathorne made two free throws about the middle of the period after the Wildcats had taken the tip off and tried to stall for the last shot of the period.

The Bulldogs got the ball out of bounds and went into a stall of their own and Bob Walters scored on an inside jump shot with 30 seconds remaining.

Second Shot Good

On the tip-off to open the sudden death second overtime, Anderson went down for a lay-up and missed it. Franklin Grove got the ball, brought it back up the floor, but it was tied up. On the tip off, Anderson got the ball on the same play, went in for a lay-up and this time made it.

Another Anderson, Ted, was the high scorer for the night with nine baskets and three free throws for 21 points for Ohio. John Miller, with six baskets and three free throws, was high for Franklin Grove with 15 points.

The victory avenged an earlier loss Ohio suffered at the hands of the Wildcats during the consolation round of the Ohio tournament when Franklin Grove won, 51-43.

Orioles Hurl Attendance Challenge

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The man who'd like to beat Milwaukee's National league attendance record told a cheering crowd of fans Tuesday night that they were the best thing that had happened to baseball since Babe Ruth.

Clarence W. Miles, president of the fledgling Baltimore Orioles of the American league, told an overflow crowd of 500 at the first annual "diamond dinner" of the Milwaukee Baseball Writers, that the admittance of Milwaukee to the National league and Baltimore to the American will "promote the welfare of baseball."

Miles said the next impetus baseball needed was for the Braves to win the National league pennant this summer "or for someone in our league to knock off the New York Yankees."

Miles tossed a pair of challenges at the Braves, both involving attendance.

"We very likely will beat Milwaukee's paid admissions," he said. "The goal of our community is an attendance of not less than two million.

"In addition, I invite the Braves to play us at Baltimore on a mutual open date and we'll draw more people than saw any game at Milwaukee all last summer."

The Braves last year set a National league attendance mark of 1,826,397 in County Stadium, which seated 36,000. The capacity will be increased to about 43,000 this summer. Baltimore's Municipal Stadium seats 52,000.

Awards were made by the writers to Eddie Mathews and Bill Bruton, named the Braves' most valuable and rookie of the year, respectively, and George (Duffy) Lewis, the club's traveling secretary, for meritorious contributions to baseball.

RUTLAND —(Special)— Bureau Township exploded in the second period and then rolled on to rack up a 77-59 victory over Rutland here last night.

Bureau took a 19-12 first period lead and then outscored the hosts, 26-8, in the second period to settle the issue. Mills with 18 baskets and one free throw for 37 points, was high for Bureau.

McDaniel Scores 32 Points For Polo; Clippers Win Fifth

POLO—(Special)—Despite the scoring efforts of Clark McDaniel, who scored 32 points, the Polo Marcos went down to their eighth defeat, losing to Amboy, 84-66.

Amboy, enjoying a height advantage for one of the few times this season, made the most of it as the Clippers took control of the rebounds against the Marcos, who are without a 6 footer on the starting team.

Polo kept it close for the first six minutes of the first quarter, but then Amboy pulled away to take a 20-13 lead at the end of the quarter.

The Clippers, getting consistent scoring from Don Carroll, Ron Shippert, Rich McCaffrey and Rich Montavon, all of whom hit double figures, settled the contest in the second period when they outscored Polo, 24-14.

15 in Third Period

Polo gained its lone scoring edge in the third period when the Marcos collected 19 points to 17 for Amboy.

McDaniel went to work for Polo in the second half. He scored eight points in the first half, but in the third period, he got 15 of the Marcos 19 points and finished it off with nine points in the final period. McDaniel had 11 baskets and 10 free throws. Ed Olsen had 11 points and Dick McKee had 10 for Polo.

Don Carroll topped the Clipper scoring with 21 points on 10 baskets and one free throw while McCaffrey had 18 points, Shippert 17 and Montavon 13.

It was Amboy's fifth win against eight losses. Polo has won one game while losing eight.

Amboy won the preliminary game, 64-46.

Walnut Beats Wethersfield; Wins, 60-51

WALNUT — (Special) — Walnut's Blue Raiders beat off a third period rally by Wethersfield of Kewanee and picked up their fourth Blackhawk conference victory last night, winning, 60-51.

The Raiders opened with a 12-10 first period lead and increased it to 27-21 at halftime. Wethersfield threatened early in the third period and closed the gap to one point, but Walnut rebounded to go ahead, 45-38, at the end of the quarter.

Pat McCarthy was again the leading scorer for Walnut, tossing in eight field goals and 11 free throws for 27 points. Carlson with 13 points was high for Wethersfield.

Walnut also won the preliminary game, 50-47, in an overtime thriller. The score was tied at 44-all at the end of the regulation game but Walnut pulled into a 48-47 lead and Ned Waterhouse iced the game with a lay-up just before the overtime ended.

The varsity victory was the fourth against two losses for Walnut in Blackhawk competition. It was Wethersfield's fourth loss against two wins.

SPORTS

VISITORS MOVE

WHAT'S TH' SCORE

by Norm Sollow

THEY CAME BACK: From Rochelle we received a recap of the ups and downs in the career of Al Musselman that would make Frank Merriwell look rather insignificant.

Musselman isn't noted as the boy who scored the winning basket, but he is a boy who has had to fight against overwhelming odds. It was just a few short months ago that Al was told he would never play in sports again.

YET DIXON AND OTTAWA FANS probably find this hard to believe. Against Dixon, Musselman turned in a good aggressive game and tried so hard, that at one point he went after Pat Kernan so fast that when Kernan pulled a disappearing act, Musselman sailed over the heads of his teammates on the bench. Against Ottawa, Musselman scored 16 points and put the brakes on the Pirates' Gene Honeymoon.

Al Musselman

* * *

Musselman is a three letter man at Rochelle—football, basketball and track. Last spring, when track ended, something happened and Al "blacked-out." He was rushed to the Rochelle hospital and two days later was taken to the Swedish-American hospital in Rockford. Two weeks later, he was in St. Luke's hospital in Chicago.

WHAT HAPPENED? Reportedly, no one is sure. It may have been the result of a head injury suffered in the Princeton football game last year. Musselman was unconscious for five hours.

Al Person

It may have been the result of the time he crashed head on into the wall during a basketball game.

It may have been the result of his high jumping methods in which his shoulder bore the full shock of his falls.

When he blacked out, it was found that Musselman had a broken neck. The doctors said he would not participate in sports again.

* * *

BUT MUSSELMAN WAS A DETERMINED BOY. He improved rapidly. Soon was allowed to swim a little. Then a little softball was permitted. When school opened this fall, Musselman reported for football. After all, he was captain. But Coach Buck Correll said no. He would have to have a release from the Chicago doctors.

Musselman returned to Chicago, took a physical examination and the next day reported back to Correll, permission granted, and played through the season.

After Musselman's gymnastic stunt here in Dixon, Coach Bill Wilkinson said: "As long as we have guys like Musselman with us, we'll win our share of ball games." And who can doubt it.

* * *

AND UP AT POLO, which plays its next ball game at Rochelle, Al Person, who was reported to have suffered a five-inch skull fracture during the Mt. Morris basketball game two weeks ago, has returned to school and is again working out with the team. First X-rays indicated the fracture, but subsequent tests revealed it was nothing but a hard crack on the head.

Coach Charlie Ketner said last night that Person would work out with the team this week but would not see action in the Rochelle game. Person is expected to be back in shape to start against Milledgeville, Jan. 29.

LaMoille Racks Up 93-62 Verdict Over Lee Center

LAMOILLE—(Special)—LaMoille's Lions handed Lee Center a 93-62 setback last night in a free scoring game.

Lee Center's Bulldogs kept the pace during the first period, trailing by only one point, 17-18. But LaMoille, paced by Del Fetzer and Roger Weller, racked up 29 points in the second period while Lee Center got a respectable but woefully short 13 points.

The Bulldogs racked up 32 points in the second half, but it was still a case of too little, too late as LaMoille scored 46.

Ed Scheffler with seven baskets and two free throws and Ed Baylor with six baskets and four free throws were high for Lee Center with 16 points each, while Jerry Bollman and George Mace each had 14 points.

Fetzer scored 13 baskets and three free throws and Weller had 12 baskets and five free throws for 29 points each to pace LaMoille.

Most scoring by both teams was done on driving lay-ups.

LaMoille won the preliminary game, 40-12.

The box score:

Lee Center (62)	G.	F.	P.	LaMoille (93)	G.	F.	P.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES AGAIN—The Greentown bridge, which collapsed April 8, 1953, and killed the driver of a tractor-trailer, is shown Monday as its main span lay in the waters of the Big Sandy river at Paintsville, Ky. Morey Named U. of I. Head

Acting President Given Promotion by Trustees

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Lloyd Morey, 68, has been advanced from acting president to president of the University of Illinois for a term extending to next Sept. 1.

The promotion was voted Tuesday by the university's board of trustees.

After the closed meeting, Board President Park Livingston told reporters the action was taken as a reward to Morey for his long service with the university, including 37 years as comptroller.

Was Recommended

Livingston said a special committee set up to select a permanent successor to former President George D. Stoddard, who was ousted last July, recommended the move.

The committee will continue its work, he said.

The expiration date on Morey's term was fixed because under university rules he must retire before the next school year starts, Livingston said. Ordinarily, a president serves at the board's pleasure.

The retirement rules have a provision that would make it possible to extend Morey's term after Sept. 1 for not to exceed one year. Additional extensions could be made thereafter.

Fill 3 Posts

At its regular monthly meeting preceeding the closed session, the board filled three major university positions, announced acquisition of the papers of the late H. G. Wells and recommended purchase of some television equipment.

The appointments confirmed were those of Dr. Granville A. Bennett as dean of the College of Medicine, Prof. Joseph Smiley as dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and Prof. Alan K. Laing as chairman of the Department of Architecture.

Bennett fills a vacancy left when Dean Stanley W. Olson resigned in January to join the Baylor University faculty. Smiley, who has headed the French department succeeds Henning Larsen who was appointed provost Oct. 1. Laing takes the place of Prof. Turpin C. Bannister who asked to be relieved.

The Wells collection includes manuscripts of many of his works. Wells, English author and historian, died in 1946. One of his widely known books was "Outline of History."

The board accepted the resignations of Quincy Howe and Robert B. Hudson, associate professors of journalism and communications. The two resigned effective June 30 to enter the television and radio field.

The board confirmed appointment of an executive committee of the university's citizens committee. The executive group, to serve one year, includes:

Maj. Lennox R. Lohr, of Chicago, chairman; Carroll R. Harding, Ronald M. Kimball and Merle J. Trees, all of Chicago; William B. Hamel of Mattoon, Mrs. Frank P. Dixon of Lake Forest, William D. Knight of Rockford, Walter W. McLaughlin of Decatur and Burnell L. Small of Kankakee.

State Will Inspect 800 Trailer Camps

CHICAGO (AP) — More than 800 trailer camps in Illinois will be inspected within the next 30 days for fire regulation violations, Sanford Giles, the state chief fire marshal, said Tuesday.

Most trailer camps are in unincorporated areas not readily accessible to adequate fire protection and this is a great concern of the state fire officials, Giles said.

He said the camps would be inspected by deputy fire marshals to see that each has at least a 5 pound capacity fire extinguisher and a 15 pound one if the camp is not near a water main.

Hydrants should be provided along with hose within 300 feet of any trailer at camps near water mains, he said.

Southern Democrats See 'New Unity' Within Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP) – Sen. Holland (D-Fla) said today there are signs of a new unity between Southern Democrats and national party leaders which should pay off in the November elections involving control of congress.

Holland, who led a group of Southern senators in boycotting a midsummer party rally at Chicago last year, said he is joining fully in preparations for a party meeting scheduled at Miami Beach, Fla., March 6.

Adlai to Speak

Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) said in a statement former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, is expected to be the main speaker. Party members from Southeastern states will attend.

Holland said in an interview he believes conditions have changed materially since the 1953 Chicago rally.

"I think the attitude of the national party leadership is decidedly more considerate to the South now than it was at that time," Holland declared. "I feel the signs are encouraging for better cooperation within the party."

Stevenson lost four Southern states to Eisenhower in the 1952 elections. He had taken a stand in favor of civil rights legislation. In this connection, Holland said he was pleased by Stevenson's statements on a visit to Atlanta late last year.

"He said at Atlanta that the South had made more significant progress in the field of solving civil rights problems than had any other part of the nation," Holland said. "That is different talk from some that we heard in 1952."

Holland noted, too, that the Chicago meeting had virtually buried the "loyalty oath" to which Southerners had objected strenuously. The oath pledged 1952 convention delegates to try to get convention nominees on their state ballots under the Democratic label.

Happy Birthday

Three Killed In DC-3 Crash At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)— Three persons were killed today when a chartered cargo plane crashed while attempting to land during a snow storm at the Municipal Air Terminal.

The DC3 plane, flying here from Jackson, Mich., under charter to General Motors Corp., crashed on the bank of the Missouri river only a short distance from the north end of the airport. It did not burn.

The men were tentatively identified by P. N. Goldstein, air safety investigator for the CAB, as:

William Dale Speaks, 33, Van Nuys, Calif.

Edward F. Kaselak, 39, Miami, Fla.

Byran R. Williams, 31, Lykens, Pa.

Goldstein said he did not know which of the three was the pilot.

All the bodies were found in the crew compartment.

The plane was operated by the Zantop Flying Service of Jackson, Mich., and was carrying a load of automotive parts.

The plane crashed sometime between 7:05 and 8 a.m. (CST), but apparently there were no witnesses to the crash.

The life of cold cathode lamps remains the same regardless of the number of lamp stars per hour; but the life of rapid-start fluorescent lamps diminishes the more they are cut off and on.

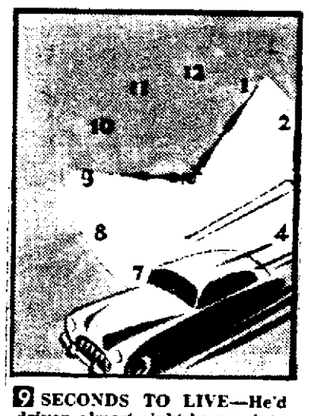
TEN SECONDS TO LIVE! . . . .

He pushed his sleeve back, held his wrist close to the lighted speedometer, squinted to read the time. A little after nine. Five, ten minutes after. Ought to be home in half an hour. If he'd known he had only seconds to live he might have checked the time more closely. He might have done several things differently. It's happened to lots of people; maybe not just that way, but similarly. Drive too long, eyes get tired, reactions slow down. Rain, darkness, a windshield that's hard to see through. Driving too fast. A car or truck ahead that you can't see. It's happened before to lots of folks. IT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU.

10 SECONDS TO LIVE—He massaged his eyes with thumb and middle finger, trying to rub out some of the sand.



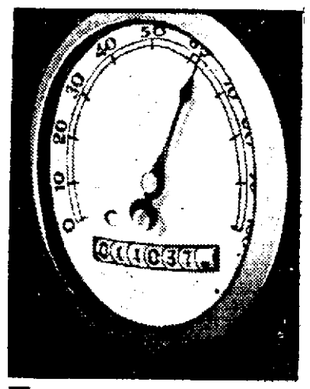
9 SECONDS TO LIVE—He'd driven almost eight hours since lunch and was beginning to feel it. Tired . . . tired. . . .

8 SECONDS TO LIVE—Lousy driving in rain. Headlight beam just seems to soak in along with the water.

7 SECONDS TO LIVE—Probably need a new windshield wiper blade. Get one tomorrow—or next time it rains.

6 SECONDS TO LIVE—A cigaret flipped from an oncoming car. The red glow dissolved before it landed.

5 SECONDS TO LIVE—He planted his heels on the floorboard, squirmed back in seat, trying for comfort. Shouldn't drive so long without a break. Will sure be good to get home and stretch out on the couch.



4 SECONDS TO LIVE—At 60 miles per hour, a car covers 88 feet of pavement every second. Four seconds, 352 feet. Hard to make a quick stop on this wet pavement. 352 feet—from here to Eternity.

3 SECONDS TO LIVE—Something looked wrong through the blurry windshield. A tentative dab at the brake stiffened into desperate pressure as he made out an old, unlighted, slow-moving truck ahead.

2 SECONDS TO LIVE—Panic moved in. Turn to the left. No. There's a car coming. Headlights too close. Can't make it. Turn to the right. That's no good either. Too close to the roadside ditch.

1 SECOND TO LIVE—Horror numbed everything into slow motion. He was floating right into the near corner of the truck bed. He opened his mouth to scream. NO SECONDS TO LIVE.

ICC Okays Switch of Gas Firms

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)— The Illinois Commerce Commission today announced approval of an agreement under which the recently organized Northern Illinois Gas Co. will take control of Commonwealth Edison gas properties.

The new firm will acquire all gas facilities of Edison's Public Service Co. division and furnish gas service to 232 northern Illinois communities at rates approved for Edison by the commission last Saturday.

The agreement provides for Northern Illinois Gas also to acquire Edison's limited hot water heating property at Oak Park and the steam heating property at Aurora.

In another order, the commission approved terms of the sale by Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Co. of 40,000 cumulative preferred $100 shares at an annual dividend rate of $4.22.

Keglers Qualify

CHICAGO (AP)—Forty-eight women qualified for the semi-finals in the All-Star individual match game bowling championship. Two women were exempt from competition in the preliminary rounds, defending champion Marion Ladewig, Grand Rapids, Mich., and Shirley Garms of Chicago.

The qualifiers included:

Ida May Gotch, East St. Louis, Ill. 2,964.

Clarice Miller, Peoria, Ill. 2,913.

BOULDERS AND MUD THREATEN HOMES—Volunteer workers battle to keep mud and boulders washing down from nearby mountains from damaging houses on the northern outskirts of the foothill city of Sierra Madre, Calif. (Jan. 19). Some residents evacuated their homes as heavy rains started the slides on watersheds recently burned over by forest fires on Mt. Wilson and Monrovia Peak. (AP wirephoto)

Phillies in Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — The woes of the Philadelphia Phillies continued to pile up today as infielder Granny Hamner, pitcher Jim Konstanty and first baseman Earl Torgeson returned unsigned 1954 contracts.

Only eight of the 37 players on the Phils roster have signed their contracts.

Those who have rejected contracts include pitchers Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons, catcher Smokey Burgess, outfielder Richie Ashburn and first baseman Eddie Waitkus.

Investors Testify in Fraud Trial of Ottawa Loan Shark

CHICAGO (AP)—Investors told a Federal Court Jury Tuesday of handing over money to a former Ottawa, Ill., finance company owner with the expectation of big profits on the purchase of a loan business in Pittsburgh.

The financier, Edwin R. Klein, is on trial on mail fraud charges and has also been indicted on charges of violating Securities and Exchange Commission Regulations. He is accused of bilking investors of $110,000.

The government alleges Klein promised high interest and a bonus after buying the Pittsburgh firm. The owner of the Pittsburgh company said it never was for sale.

Ray C. Graffis of Ottawa testified he invested $2,669 expecting to make a 20 per cent profit. He said he received some interest but didn't say how much.

Mrs. Ella Egan, Chicago widow, told the jurors she invested $3,000 in five years and received about $750 interest. Interest payments stopped, she said, about in March, 1952 when she said Klein went out of business.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wolfe, 619 W. Superior St., Ottawa, took the witness stand and identified herself as Klein's bookkeeper from 1948 to 1952.

Klein operated the Superior Finance Service in Ottawa for 20 years.
